Mr. Pierce was born in Fargo, N.D. Aug. 11, 1928 and came to Antelope Valley in 1944, attending local schools. He was a Navy veteran of the Korean campaign and locally a member of the Lancaster Moose Lodge.

On Oct. 16, 1949 in Lancaster, Mr. Pierce married the former Jeanette L. Provenzano who survives.

In addition to his wife of Lancaster, also surviving are two sons, Robert N. Pierce of Lancaster and David J. Pierce serving with the US Air Force in Riverside; a daughter, Catherine Sielman of Pico Rivera; a brother, Warren Hansen of Needles; a sister, June Michaels of Central Valley, Calif.; and two granddaughters.

The family has requested those desiring to make contributions to the Coronary Care Unit at AV Medical Center in Mr. Pierce's memory.

13% wish for color TV

In a recent survey, Italians were asked what they'd choose if they could select a valuable gift. Eight percent said a car, 10 percent a fur coat, another 10 percent jewelry, 13 percent a color TV set. For their greatest wish, 13 percent chose travel, 12 percent wanted good health, 7 percent a nice home, another 7 percent money, 6 percent to win a soccer pool, and only 5 percent for simply a serene life.
