

New Resident in Palmdale Is Dead

Alonzo B. Morse, who with his wife had lived for about five months at the home of Mrs. Morse's brother, J. Bush Hamblen in Palmdale, passed away Saturday, May 1, at the County General Hospital in Los Angeles, with heart trouble. He had been sick about two months. Funeral services were held yesterday afternoon at the Mumaw Funeral Chapel in Lancaster, and burial was in the Lancaster Cemetery.

Mr. Morse was 63 years of age at the time of his death, and had been ill about two months. He came here from the Rio Grande Valley, in Texas, in December of last year. Back there he had been engaged in the cotton buying business.

His wife, Mrs. Pearl Morse, the Hamblens and other relatives survive.
