

their food at Lake Hughes restaurant.

Two Popular Couples United In Marriage

FOUR HAPPY YOUNG PEOPLE STARTED ON THEIR HONEYMOON

A wedding of first interest to the people of the valley occurred Sunday evening when Miss Bernice Kidd, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Emery Kidd, of Palmdale, became the bride of Maurice Reynolds, son of Mrs. Jane Reynolds of Lancaster. The wedding took place at the home of the bride's parents at 3:30 o'clock, with Rev. Harvey A. Hood officiating.

While Donald Graves, cousin of the bride, played Mendelsohn's Wedding March, the bridal party marched the full length of the north porch, where the guests were gathered and took their places just outside the porch under a trellis covered with Boston Ivy and banked with sprays of pink roses and jardinières of mixed flowers, where the ceremony was read. The groom and groomsman led the march and were followed by the matron of honor and two flower girls sprinkling rose petals on the path of the bride, who came in on her father's arm.

Following the ceremony, Donald Graves played the Lohengrin wedding march as a recessional, and the bride and groom returned to the living room, where a reception was held for the guests.

The bride was beautifully frocked in egg shell satin, with the skirt made up with a circle of flounces, short in front, with a train in the back, and a long veil caught with orange blossoms and white satin ribbons. Brides roses and lilies of the valley formed the bride's bouquet.

Mrs. Treva Seglie, of Valyermo, lifelong friend of the bride, was matron of honor. Her dress was of peach georgette and she carried a bouquet of pink carnations. William Redman, Jr., of Lancaster, served as best man. The two little flower girls were cousins of the bride, Berry Rose Whitney and Pauline Kidd, both from Pasadena. One was dressed in blue and the other in pink georgette.

For the reception the living room was beautifully decorated with large baskets of gladiolas, larkspur, snapdragons, blue Delphiniums and yellow broom. The fireplace was banked with ferns and flowers. Over the bridal table a large white bell was hung and streamers of pink, blue, lavender, yellow, green and white came down to meet cups of similar color. A large, white wedding cake in three tiers and topped by miniature bride and groom was the center piece of the table. Another room of interest to the guests was that in which the many wedding gifts were displayed.

Following the reception, the bride and groom made an attempt to get away but were caught in time for all to catch a glimpse of the bride as she appeared in her traveling ensemble of powder blue crepe de chine dress and blue velvet coat, with smaller pieces to match. After precipitating a shower of rice and unloading several bundles of old shoes from their car, the couple got away on their honeymoon, which they will spend in Yosemite Park. On their return they will take up their residence at Lancaster, where the groom has already built and prepared a substantial home for the bride.

In addition to relatives and friends in Palmdale, the following guests from out of town were present: Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Whitney and family, Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Graves, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Whitney, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. S. Martin, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Kidd and daughter Pauline, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Graves, Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Richards, Donald Graves, all from Pasadena; Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Peterson and family, Miss Betty Elson of Hollywood; Miss Emma Barnum, Mr. and Mrs. J. Harold Barnum and family, Miss Ellen Kidd, of San Bernardino; Dr. and Mrs. W. A. Andrews and family of Yucaipa; Earl Moore, Mrs. Jane Reynolds, Miss Flora Reynolds, Mr. Peter Sterk, Miss Helen McMurray, H. R. Shuman, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Redman Jr., of Lancaster; Carroll Webb of Rosemond; Mr. and Mrs. Robt. Pallett, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Seglie of Valyermo; Miss Jeanie Donnelley, Drew Nye, San Diego; Miss Velma Robinson, Mr. and Mrs. E. Nichols, Los Angeles; Mrs. Marie Sandstedo, Glendale.

Archibald R. Mitchell and Miss Helen Reese, popular young people of Littlerock, were united in marriage Saturday evening at 7 o'clock. The wedding occurred at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Claus H. Reese. The Rev. H. A. Hood officiated, using the brief wedding form. The bride was beautifully gowned for the occasion in a wedding dress of white flat crepe. In addition to the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Mitchell, father and mother of the groom, and Margaret, Clara and Alma Reese, sisters of the bride, were present. A sumptuous wedding dinner followed the ceremony. The bride and groom then left for El Modena, California, where they will spend the honeymoon. They will return later to Littlerock to make their home.

Graduate Twelve From Palmdale Model School

SEVEN GIRLS, FIVE BOYS IN CLASS—FOUR ON HONOR ROLL

Graduation exercises for the pupils finishing the 8th grade were held at the Palmdale school last Thursday evening. A program in keeping with the splendid work of the school, as one of the model schools of the state, was given.

While Miss Fay Burks, their teacher, played an appropriate march, the twelve members of the graduating class marched into the auditorium and occupied a semi-circle of seats which extended across the platform. The graduates were dressed in white.

The platform was beautifully decorated with large baskets of gladiolas and carnations and the entire front of the platform was covered with carnations and ferns.

Mrs. Emma May Casey, principal of Palmdale school, presided and introduced Clarinel Drinnon, class president, who opened the program with an address of welcome. The whole class then sang "My Own School." The accomplishments of the pupils were demonstrated in both of these numbers.

W. J. Cagney, supervisor of the valley schools, brought a message from County Superintendent Upjohn. Mr. Upjohn expressed his regrets for being unable to attend in person and congratulated the pupils upon achieving the right to receive their diplomas from the County Board of Education. He mentioned the subjects studied and the purpose back of them and added, "If you do not continue to use these marvelous instruments which have been presented to you, your graduation will mean little and the investment of time, effort and money, which has been put into your education, will have been largely in vain. Remember that this is commencement, which means that it is the beginning of the time when you will put to good use the tools of learning. What you have already done is small indeed in comparison with what you should do in the future. Our interest and our good wishes go with you and we will hope to hear from you again."

Supervisor Cagney, stressing Mr. Upjohn's closing words, spoke of future commencements, at high school and college, as times when a